in the final, sending the Green team to elimination. 555,000 11 (59) 54/11-5 Thursday, 11 July 2019 Two-Dish Pressure Test: Santiago Fernandez - Larissa used her immunity pin. Simon and Cristina had to cook a salty and sweet dish at the same time. Simon did well on his savoury dishes but didn't pose a tulle on his sweet dish as he ran out of time. Christina also did well on her savory dish even though her sauce was too salty but it was her grainy marquise and inedible espuma that resulted in her exclusion. 592,000 9 54/11-6 MasterClass: Carl Wolf on Rottnest Island - Contestants visit Rottnest Island for their latest in MasterClass history, joined by chef Carl Wolfe of Thomson's and Beach Club Pinky on Discovery Island Rottnest. Using Rottnest products, Carl prepared fresh crayfish, with kafir lime dressing, salted bush and seaweed oil. The judges also cooked their own dishes, with Matt showing contestants simple steps to cook Pumpkin Three Ways. George cooked Halloumi with chutney Puree's queens and Gary returned to his roots with his French pheasant, mashed potatoes and kale. 394,000 17 (60) Week 12 - Final Week 55/12-1 Sunday, 14 July 2019 Ingredient from Home Mystery Box - Judges Choice Invention Test - In the latest Mystery Box challenge, contestants were sent an ingredient from home and a handwritten letter from their loved ones. Larissa won the challenge. In the test for the invention, the judges selected ingredients for each participant. Simon and Tessa joined Larissa, while Nicole, Tim and Anushka were in the bottom three. 605,000 6 (62) 56/12-2 Monday, 15 July 2019 Pressure Test: Ashley Palmer-Watts' Lamington cake - Anushka, Nicole and Tim had to recreate Ashley Palmer-Watts' Lamington cake in 4 hours. Nicole's dish stood out. Time pressure up to Anushka and that, combined with some technical difficulties on her dish, sent her home. 667,000 12 (63) 57/12-3 Tuesday, July 16 No Rules Challenge - Top 5 contestants have been asked to cook one dish they wanted to cook without rules, an open pantry and the timing to be decided by them. Nicole and Tim's dishes were good, but Larissa won the challenge by giving her the edge in the challenge the next day. 649,000 8 (64) 58/12-4 Wednesday, July 17, 2019 Press Club Service Challenge - Contestants were preparing the latest service at the flagship restaurant of George Press Club for all former and current employees. They had to prepare a five-course tasting menu with George's favorite ingredients. Since Larissa had won the previous challenge, she had to choose which course and ingredient she wanted to cook with. Tessa cooked the first dish (capers), Tim's second dish (olives), Simon's third (lentils), Larissa Fourth (lemons) and Nicole cooked the last dish (honey). Larissa won and reached the semifinals. Tessa and Tim finished second and third respectively and will gain an advantage in elimination. 719,000 6 (65) Grand Finale Week 59/13-1 Sunday, July 21, 2019 Three rounds of 'Duel' Elimination - Tim, Tessa, Simon and Nicole had to cook against each other in pairs. Having won 2nd and 3rd place in the last challenge, Tessa and Tim got to choose the pantry. Tessa chose an Asian pantry, and Nicole cooked against her. Tim chose the farm pantry and cooked against Simon. Simon and Tessa won the first round and joined Larissa in the semifinals. Then, Tim and Nicole had a cook-off using a sweet pantry. Tim won, Nicole dropped out. 648,000 5 (66) 59/13-2 MasterClass: Contestants vs. Judges and Mentors - In the first round George, Gary and Curtis Stone competed in the Mystery Box Challenge. All three dishes were outstanding, but ultimately George won with his George Tea. In the second round, the top four competed against the season's mentors, Po, Billy and Matt, the heroes of coconuts. Mentors made a curry dish and a top 4 desert. Both dishes were outstanding, and the judges announced their tie. 548,000 8 (66) 60/13-3 Monday, July 22, 2019 Semifinals Pressure Test: Peter Gilmore - Contestants are asked to recreate Peter's white coral, which replaced the snow egg in his restaurant after 10 years. The contestants had two hours to recreate the dish, and the rest of the top three contestants would move them to the Grand Final. Tessa struggled during cooking, but the taste was considered the Dish of the Day, with the best corals and all her tastes and textures were excellent. Peter Gilmore said her White Coral could be served at his restaurant. Simon was the second participant in the final. He had to remake his Oloroso Custard, but all the elements were excellent too. Larissa had various problems while cooking. Its coral was a bit dense, but other elements were in place. Her prum ice cream was considered the best. Tim made a very dense coral, and the other elements had some technical problems, so it was eliminated, leaving Larissa, Tessa and in the final. 742,000 7 61/13-4 Tuesday, July 23, 2019 Grand Final - Tessa, Simon and Larissa competed in three Challenge service courses to be served by 60 VIP dining rooms: Guest Chef and Masterchef alumni, with Shannon Bennett as mentor. All three struggled during the cook, but eventually succeeded. Simon didn't have enough points in the service call, with a score of 65/90, making it a competition between Tessa and Larissa. Tessa finished second with a score of 77/90. Larissa won with an impressive score of 85/90. Her dessert, Sechuan Pavlova with beetroot and blackberries, scored a full set of 30/30 points. 831,000 7 (68) winner announced - Larissa Takchi announced the winner of the eleventh season of MasterChef Australia, receiving the top prize of $250,000, a monthly column in Delicious magazine and a new Holden Equinox. Tessa Bursa received a cash prize of $30,000 as runner-up while Simon Toohey received a cash prize of $20,000 after finishing in third place. 952,000 3 (68) Links to Return: Masterchef Australia.
